

No Greater Love

A Music and Arts Festival
In the Spirit of the Servants of God of La Florida
To Offer Relief to Christians in the Middle East

Saturday, March 4, 2017

Shrine of Our Lady of La Leche at Mission Nombre de Dios
101 San Marco Ave, St. Augustine, Florida

FEATURING: international Christian recording artist

Audrey Assad

Join us for a music and arts festival in the spirit of the Servants of God of La Florida to offer humanitarian relief to Christians in the Middle East, featuring musicians Audrey Assad and Colleen Nixon.

From 1549-1761 Catholic priests, religious, and Native Americans laid down their lives for the faith throughout the Missions of La Florida. Today Christian men and women in the Middle East are suffering religious persecution, many courageously laying down their lives in defense of the faith. Join us as we become more aware of these two causes and support the Knights of Columbus humanitarian efforts of the Christians at Risk initiative.

The day will include

- Festival: beginning at 12noon with live music, Living History, vendors, food trucks, children's activities, "Our Last Stand" documentary screening, Eucharistic Adoration, the Sacrament of Reconciliation and more.
- Mass celebrated by Bishop Estévez at 3pm followed by a Eucharistic Procession.
- Performances: beginning in the evening. Opener: singer/songwriter/worship leader Colleen Nixon. Headliner: Audrey Assad, daughter of a Syrian refugee, author, speaker, producer, and critically lauded songwriter and musician.

TICKETS: $10 cover charge (age 12 and up) + free will offering for Christians at Risk.
Available at NoGreaterLoveFestival.com

For more information, visit: www.NoGreaterLoveFestival.com
Questions? email us at NoGreaterLoveFestival17@gmail.com